

THE HEATHER SOCIETY

acting as

INTERNATIONAL CULTIVAR REGISTRATION AUTHORITY

certifies that

Erica cinerea* ‘Creepy Crawly’

has been registered by

DAVID EDGE

Forest Edge Nurseries, Wimborne, Dorset.

REGISTRAR

DATE 26 October 2015

on behalf of The Heather Society

Its characteristics at the time of registration were Flowers purple, single, June–September.

Foliage mid-green.

Habit trailing, creeping and growing flat on ground, or weeping with stems descending sharply;
after 3 years to 3cm tall, and 35cm across.

Origins: wild-collected on Lundy in Bristol Channel, July 2007, by David Edge.

Cultivar registration number: E.2015:03